

Second Chance

For a time, Iver McDonald was superhuman. Well, not really. But at least she felt that way. That's what can happen when you're young and brash and enter high school as an elite softball player good enough to make the varsity as a freshman.

"I had this horrible attitude," she said. "I thought I was the stuff in softball—like I walked on water. I thought I was invincible, that nothing could touch me."

But things weren't going so well in her personal life.
